It was the worst day for Sally today. Everything seemed to go wrong. Her clock didn't wake her up on time in the morning. She skipped her breakfast and hurried out to her car. But the car keys were missing. She looked all over the house. She turned everything upside down. At last, she found them under the table. To make it worse, she was caught in the heavy traffic. It took almost 2 hours to get to work.

Dear ABC Program:

I read about your ABC Program in the Los Angeles Times, December 12, 2001. I am very interested in your program, which tries to cure sick people with pets. I think my cat, Dasher, would be a good visiting pet.

Dasher's a very cute, white, short-haired cat with a loving personality. Although he is only two years old, he does not run around very much. When strangers come to our house, he goes in and out of their legs and tries to get on their laps. I think a sick person would be very happy with him. He loves to be petted.

I would like to take part in your program, so I hope that you will accept my cat. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Lee
