M: _____

3. 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

[Cell phone vibrates.]

M: What's this sound?

W: Maybe it's your cell phone ringing?

M: Oh, could you excuse me for a second?

W: _____

4. 다음을 듣고, 남자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: What's your plan for this Friday night? Movies? Shopping? Resting at home? Whatever you do, please remember to be an Energy Saver. People around the world participate by turning off lights for an hour. How much can we really save by doing this? Turning off the TV for an hour will only save about five cents. However, if many people participate, the results can be huge. So, why not add one more thing to your Friday schedule?

5. 대화를 듣고, 여자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: What are you doing, Mike?

M: I'm preparing the presentation of the science project.

W: When is the presentation?

M: Tomorrow. I have to present my science project within ten minutes.
It's so hard.

W: Don't worry too much. You'll do well. Can I have a look at the material?

M: Sure. [Pause] What do you think?

W: It looks good. But it seems a little bit plain.

M: How can I make the presentation more appealing?

W: I think you should add some interesting pictures to it.

M: Great idea. That'll help.

6. 다음을 듣고, 여자가 하는 말의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Do you have damaged paper money? Here's some useful information. If the damage is not serious and the paper money is complete, the damage has no impact on its value. The same applies if less than 20 percent of the paper money is missing. But if 20 percent or more of the paper money is missing, it's not complete. In that case, you can take it to the bank and receive the money equal to the remaining percentage of the paper money. If more than 80 percent of the paper money is missing, it has no value.

7. 대화를 듣고, 두 사람이 하는 말의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Hey, Joan. What are you drinking? Is that coffee?

W: No, it's not. It's one of those energy drinks.

M: Oh, why are you drinking it?

W: I have a final exam next week and I need to stay awake.

M: Well, do you know what's in energy drinks?

W: Mostly caffeine, I guess. Why do you ask?

M: Well, according to newspaper articles, energy drinks contain far more caffeine than coffee.

W: Really? Do they have any serious side effects?

W: Oh, I didn't know that. I won't drink them again.

8. 대화를 듣고, 남자의 심정으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Eric, these days you seem to spend most of your time just looking at maps.

M: You're right. I'm planning to go to New York for my next vacation.

W: Really? Who are you going with?

M: I'm going with my cousin, Kevin. I can't stop thinking about this trip.

W: I understand. New York is a wonderful place to visit.

M: Have you been there before? Do you have any recommendations?

M: Sounds good. Let's draw stars around the name, too. I want him to shine like the stars.

W: That'd be cute. Why don't we hang an animal mobile over his bed?

M: Good idea. I also want to put a floor lamp next to the bed.

W: Well, I'm afraid it'll fall down as he grabs it to stand up.

M: Hmm.... Let's not do that then. Why don't we put a mat on the floor?

W: That's a good idea!

10. 대화를 듣고, 여자가 할 일로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: I feel better. I'm wondering what was covered in his class.

W: Well, we covered the first part of Chapter Three. We also divided into groups for a project. We are in the same group.

M: That's great! Is there anything I should know as a group member?

W: Yes, we already made a plan for the project. We're going to decide each member's role next class.

W: Not at all. I'll send it right now.

W: How was your camping trip, Jack?

M: It was really fun. But I had a problem with my cell phone there.

W: Was the battery out again? Is that why you didn't call me? I told you to fully charge your cell phone before leaving.

M: It's not about the battery. I lost my cell phone.

W: Again? I bought you the phone two months ago. Anyway, where did you lose it?

M: Possibly in the bus. I used my cell phone in the bus, but I couldn't find it at the campsite.

W: I love Seoul. How long are you going to stay there?

M: Three days as well. Then, we're off to Beijing for the weekend.

W: That'll be interesting. I heard it's a great city. Are you going to visit Hong Kong, too?

16. Glass Frog에 관한 다음 내용을 듣고, 일치하지 않는 것을 고르시오.

W: Have you ever heard of Glass Frogs? The general color of Glass Frogs is green like most frogs. However, you can see their insides through their clear skin of the belly. This is why they are called "Glass" Frogs. Glass Frogs were first discovered in 1872. They live in Central and South America. They are very difficult to find and collect because they live along rivers where it is hard for humans to get to. Glass Frogs are small, between one and three inches in length, which is another reason why they are hard to find.

17. 대화를 듣고, 남자가 보러갈 공연을 고르시오.

W: What are you doing?

M: I'm checking the performance schedule of this week. I'm planning to watch a performance with Tina this weekend.

W: Are you? So, which one do you have in mind?

M: I haven't decided yet. I like rock music, but Tina prefers classical music.

W: You don't like classical music?

M: Well, symphonies aren't bad, but operas are boring.

W: Hmm..., there are no symphonies this weekend. Why don't you go see a comedy show?

M: Oh, that's a great idea. Tina once said that she likes comedy shows.

W: No, I didn't. What does it say?

M: It says bicycles must be parked only at permitted places where there are bicycle racks.

W: Does it mean we can't park our bicycles just anywhere we want?
