W: It cooks food for a long time without the risk of burning. But it's not that necessary. I've never used it.

다음을 듣고, 물음에 답하십시오.

M: Are your children doing something for your family? Do they clean their rooms? Or do they wash dishes after dinner? Do you think doing chores is meaningless? It isn't. It is important that children have chores to do because it can help them develop in many ways. First, children can learn that everyone needs to share in the workload. Doing chores can also make them realize the importance of completing a given job. Furthermore, while doing chores, they can learn basic life skills for themselves. These skills will be very helpful in their future lives. While children do chores, try to give them rewards, such as stickers and toys for preschoolers, and clothes for teenagers. But the best way to encourage your children is by giving them praise. So start your children with a few chores today.
