1. 대화를 듣고, 여자가 구입할 물건을 고르시오.

M: What're you doing on the computer, honey?

W: I'm searching for a room fountain. I need one to put beside the plants in the living room. Can you help me?

M: Sure. All of these look like artwork. This angel pouring water into the basin looks cute.

W: Right, but it looks too classical.

M: Does it? What about this one with the fish on the top?

W: I like the three-tier design, but the fish looks a little boring.

M: Then, how about the fountain with the ball on the top?

W: You mean the one that looks like a mountain? It's too bumpy.

M: No, I mean the other one. It looks like a pyramid.

W: Isn't it too simple?

M: Yeah, a little bit. What do you think of this one with three round ceramic pots?

W: Okay. It looks very modern and stylish. Let's go for it.

2. 대화를 듣고, 남자의 심정으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Jim, you left early yesterday. What's up?

M: There was a swimming competition for the local high school students.

W: Really? How did your son do?

M: Luckily, he won first place in the 200-meter freestyle.

W: Wow, congratulations! I didn't know your son was that good.

M: Me neither. I didn't expect that much. That was just for checking his progress.

W: Did he show any talent for swimming in his childhood?

M: Actually, he was weak in the past. I just wanted him to improve his physical health.

W: I see. That's why he started swimming.

M: Yes, right. So, his achievement is special to both of us.

W: I can imagine how you feel.

3. 다음을 듣고, 남자가 하는 말의 주제로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: In our last class, we talked about the importance of human relationships for success in life. Today we'll think about what kind of people we are likely to be attracted to or make friends with. Let's first think about our friends. We tend to make friends with those of the same gender, race or age. How about roommates in the dorm? When our roommates are similar to us in character, we are most likely to become good friends with them. We also tend to have a friendly feeling toward those with the same hobbies. Of course, people do marry people of other races, but their relationships tend to be based on other important similarities such as values and education. After all, birds of a feather really do flock together.

4. 대화를 듣고, 남자가 여자를 위해 할 일로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Oh, Mrs. Bennett. I've just called Restaurant La Verita and they said they can have a table ready for you at 7:30 p.m.

W: So did you make a reservation?

M: Yeah, I've made a reservation under your name.

W: Oh, thank you very much for your help.

M: Not at all, Mrs. Bennet. By the way, how are you getting to the restaurant?

W: Umm..., how long does it take? Is it far from here?

M: By car, it would be only about 20 minutes, but it won't be easy to find if you drive yourself.

W: Oh, really? I'm totally new to this city.

M: Then, shall I have a taxi ready for you at 7:00?

W: Oh, that would be great. Thanks.

5. 대화를 듣고, 여자가 지불할 금액을 고르시오.

M: Welcome to Trade Center Ice Rink.

W: Thank you. One adult and two children. What are the rates?

M: Ten dollars for adults. How old are the children?

W: My daughter is 8 years old, and my son is 10 years old.

M: For children under 11 years, it's 5 dollars. So, that comes to 20 dollars altogether.

W: Okay. Do you offer a private lesson?

M: Of course, but the lesson will cost you an extra 10 dollars.

W: That's good. My daughter has never been on the ice. I'll sign her up for that.

M: Okay. Oh, did you bring your gloves? All skaters must wear gloves in the ice rink.

W: My kids all have gloves, but I'm afraid I don't. Can I rent a pair here?

M: Sure. You have to pay one dollar for your gloves.

W: Okay. Here's my card.

6. 다음을 듣고, 여자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: As you were notified earlier this week, today there will be a meeting for organizing the orientation program for freshman students. This year, we'll begin a new program where freshmen can get some advice about school life from their seniors. All staff members of the student council, club leaders, and class captains should gather at Simpson Hall at 2:00 p.m. Any of your good ideas or suggestions about the program would be appreciated. Please work together for the successful first event of this year!

W: That sounds interesting. What kinds of books do you need to read?

M: Ten novels. Here's the list.

W: Wow, they're really good books. I read most of them.

M: Really? Then there's one thing you can help me with.

W: Oh, don't say you need a partner to enter the quiz with. I'm visiting my grandparents next Friday.

M: It's not that. Can you make some questions about those books? It'll be really helpful for me.

W: No problem. I'll send them via e-mail by next Monday.

M: Thanks. I owe you a lot.

M: You're kidding! We don't have time to go all the way back home to get them.

W: Oh, I ruined our day. I'm so sorry.

M: Wait a minute... I have an idea. Hand me the lunchbox.

W: Are you hungry already?

M: Not at all. Maybe we can use the bread from our sandwiches instead of worms.

W: Are you serious?

M: I've never tried it, but I've heard that people have caught fish using bread.

M: Yeah, I was really happy to be there with them.

W: Now, could you tell us about your plan for this season?

M: My knee injury has not completely healed, so I'm going to take care of it during the first half of this season.

W: I really want to see you running around the floor soon again. Thank you so much for talking to us. Anything to say to your fans?

W: Well, I've always wanted one with a drying function. That would be convenient during the rainy season.

M: That'll be good. Do you need any other functions?

W: I want a boiling function, too.

M: I heard that function uses a lot of energy.

W: Really? I don't want a huge electricity bill. How about the air-wash function instead?

M: What is it for?

W: It takes away the bad smell. It'll be useful after we have a barbecue.

M: Sounds great. With the same function, why don't we buy the cheaper one?

W: Okay. Let's do it.

12. Green Horizon School에 관한 다음 내용을 듣고, 일치하지 않는 것을 고르시오.

M: Welcome to Green Horizon School. I'm very happy to introduce our school to you today. Our school is one of the oldest private schools in this district and has a good reputation. We have a special curriculum combining study with manual work. We have a plot of land where the students work for a few hours each week. They plant vegetables, they weed and water, and later they harvest the crops. All the crops end up on their lunch table. In this way, they learn the value of labor and how rewarding it is. Usually, children do not like vegetables such as spinach, green beans, or cabbage. But, by growing vegetables themselves, children soon develop a taste for them.
