W: Tim would be an awesome student body president.

M: Sure. He's great.

W: As the election is next week, we must get these posters made as soon as possible.

M: Alright. First, we should decide on his picture for the poster.

W: Which is better, with or without a tie?

M: I'm afraid Tim wearing a tie will look too formal.

W: Right. Let's choose the picture without a tie. Now, we should talk about the slogan, 'Tim for President!' Where do we have to place it?

M: It should go above his photo, so everyone can see it easily.

W: Okay, then what should be written beneath the photo?

M: How about the election date?

W: That's a good idea.

M: I think we're done. Let's go to the printing shop now!

M: You're welcome. Do you know the program starts next Saturday?

W: Saturday? I thought it was a weekday program.

M: No, only Saturday.

W: Oh, my goodness! I already signed up for another weekend program. Can I do both?

M: I'm afraid you can't. You'd better apply for the English Reading Program later.

W: Yeah...I have to give it up this time.

3. 다음을 듣고, 남자가 설명하는 대상을 고르시오.

M: Most people have this in their room. This might be on your wall, shelf, or desk. It is something most people look at every day. It's helpful when washing your face, brushing your teeth, or combing your hair. With this, you can also examine and adjust your appearance. If you carry this item, you must be careful. It is fragile. It can be many different shapes, but the surface is always smooth and shiny. Some people believe that if you break this item, it will bring bad luck.

M: I got the job as an engineer at the ABC Auto Company!
W: Oh, that's wonderful!
M: I wouldn't have gotten it without your help. You made my resume stand out.
W: It's nothing.
M: I really owe you. Is there anything I can do for you?
W: Not much. (pause) Hmm...actually my car seems to have a problem with the engine.
M: Then why don't you bring your car to my garage tomorrow? I can check it for you.
W: OK, thanks!

5. 다음을 듣고, 여자가 하는 말의 목적으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: This is all for today. Let me explain what you have to do before next class. It's about making a plan for group camping. You can group three to four people together and decide on the place to visit. The whole plan should be written in English, using the learned expressions during the lessons. You can add some new expressions. The more creative the plan is, the better. The total amount should be 350 to 400 words. The deadline is next Tuesday. If it is late, two points are reduced per day. If you have any questions, you can send me an email. My email address is teacherhelp@school.com. I hope you enjoy this cooperative work and I expect that your English writing skills will improve.

M: 5 pages per copy, and B4 size. Please make it in color.

W: OK, it's one dollar per page, so that'll be 5 dollars per copy.

M: That sounds reasonable.

W: Then, how many copies do you need?

M: My class has 40 students. So, I need around 40 copies.

W: If you order over 30, we provide a 10% discount from the total.

M: It sounds great! Just 40 copies, please.

W: Good. You can have them next Monday.

M: Right, we are here now. We'll get off soon.

W: Then, I can take off this life vest, right?

M: Yes, put it back in its original place.

W: Okay. (pause) Now, which way should we go?

W: Again? It's over there. Tom, stay focused.
M: I know, Mrs. Garbie.
W: Don't forget to play the violin when I give you the cue.
M: No, I won't. This time I won't make the same mistake as before.
W: Good. I trust you. I know you practiced your part a lot.
M: Thanks. Look! My parents are sitting over there.
W: Yes, they are. I'm sure they are here to cheer you on.
M: Yeah, that's right. I will try my best not to disappoint them.

9. 다음을 듣고, 무엇에 관한 안내인지 고르시오.

M: The City Art Museum is the proud host of Van Gogh and Gauguin's works this month. This event features more than 120 paintings and works on paper by these two artists. Van Gogh and Gauguin met and were associated with the various avant-garde movements in Paris. They also played a big role in creating a party called "Petit Boulevard." The painters of the Petit Boulevard shaped European modern art. In one of the exhibits, you can explore the deep, but productive relationship between Van Gogh and Gauguin through photos, maps, and letters. Don't miss this wonderful chance to appreciate the two masters' works.

M: Tomorrow. Are you going to pick me up?

W: Sorry, darling. Uncle Nate had a car accident and is in the hospital now.

M: Really? That's too bad.

W: Dad and I are visiting him today and will be there until the day after tomorrow.

M: Don't worry about me. I can take the bus.

M: Oh, no. Don't bother. The bus terminal is near my place.

W: Okay, be careful and see you at home.

11. 대화를 듣고, 여자가 남자에게 부탁한 일을 고르시오.

M: Hi, Sally, what are you doing?

W: I'm thinking of what to buy for my mom. Tomorrow is her birthday.

M: Good girl! What does she like?

W: She likes romantic novels best. Last year I bought her Jane Austin's Pride and Prejudice, and she really loved it.

M: Why don't you buy her another book by Austin?

W: I don't remember any other books she wrote. Do you?

M: Sorry, me neither.

W: Ah! I remember you told me Tom is Austin's biggest fan.

M: You're right. He is.

W: Could you ask him if he knows any good novels of hers?

M: No problem. I'm going to see him in Math class this afternoon.

12. 다음 일정표를 보면서 대화를 듣고, 두 사람이 보게 될 공연을 고르시오.

M: Honey, come on over here.

W: What is it?

M: Star Ticket's offering some year-end specials on Dec. 25. Why don't we try one?

W: Sounds great. Hmm...two comedy shows and three musicals.

M: Which one do you want to see?

W: I don't enjoy comedy shows. I'd like to watch the show with both singing and dancing.

M: No problem. What about a 3:00 p.m. show? We can have dinner together after the show.

W: I don't want to be stuck in the afternoon traffic jam.

M: Yeah, I agree. Let's see an evening one!

W: And one more thing, I hope the ticket costs less than 40 dollars. We have to save money.

M: Okay, darling, if you insist.

W: Good. We're all set now. I'm already excited!

13. 학교 행사에 대한 다음 내용을 듣고, 일치하지 않는 것을 고르시오.

[The announcement signal]

W: Attention, students. I have some announcements about today's special event before we have a school sports day on Saturday. As you know, today's final class will be cancelled. You may have heard the rumors about a special guest. Yes, it's true that former professional basketball player Jamal Mashburn is coming to today's event. He plans to speak to you about the importance of physical fitness. And I expect that you will be on your best behavior for our special guest. Band members should go to the school gym ten minutes before the event.

14. 다음을 듣고, 남자가 주장하는 바로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: OK, everyone! Let me tell you my story. While living in a farming community, we planned to build a new house. For many months, we discussed the plans, and because we did not fully agree, nothing was done. Then one day, one of us went out to the building site and began to hammer stakes into the ground. Another one started to make frames for the house. It was not long before the house was built. You can think and talk about a project for a long time, but only action will make it happen. Don't wait until all the conditions are perfect for you to begin. Work through your hands to realize the things that will serve you.

W: Of course. You must do it before it's overdue.

M: (typing sound) Hmm...oh, I'm sorry, Ms. Timmis. We made a mistake. We can help you return it.

W: How can I return this?

M: This afternoon, our delivery man will visit your place to pick it up. There's no charge for the return.

W: I'm afraid I won't be at home this afternoon. Then, what should I do?

M: _____

W: What's up, Chris?

M: Not much, Alicia. What are you doing now?

W: I'm just looking at the class schedule for next semester.

M: Oh, you haven't registered yet?

W: No...it's hard to choose my elective courses.

M: What's hard about that? You only have to choose classes you are interested in.

W: That's the easy part. I've already decided to take Spanish and Astronomy.

M: So, what's the problem?

W: The afternoon classes are all full. Only morning classes are open.

M: _____

18. 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Jane, did you hear the sad news about a famous alpinist?

W: You mean Mr. Stanley lost his life while climbing Mt. Everest?

M: Yeah. That's too bad, right?

W: Yes, but I think he really knew how to live his life fully.

M: But I don't understand why he climbed such a dangerous mountain. He gave his family and friends sorrow.

W: You know, great challenges often come with suffering and loss.

M: But he didn't have to risk his own life. See, in the end, a terrible thing happened!

W: Well...probably he wanted to achieve the things that others thought impossible. I mean...he acted up to his belief.

M: Are you saying he was right to die for his belief?

W: _____

19. 대화를 듣고, 남자의 마지막 말에 대한 여자의 응답으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Steve, what are these bikes for?

M: Our town office lends them to people for free.

W: Why do they do that?

M: By encouraging people to use more bikes, they are trying to protect the environment.

W: Oh, that seems like a brilliant idea! It can improve your health, too.

M: It has problems, though. Some people don't put the bikes back, and there have been a few thefts reported.

W: It'll take some time to correct the problems, but it's still a good idea.

M: Why doesn't your town try this? I know you guys also have excellent bike roads.

20. 다음 상황 설명을 듣고, Sally가 관리인에게 할 말로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Sally was looking for a camping site for her family's vacation. She heard that Green Park's camping sites command a nice view of a lake, and she reserved one near the lake right away. Her family arrived at the park, and Sally paid the camping fees at the park office. However, when they actually got to their designated site, they found it was not near the lake, but near big waste bins. And they smelled a lot. Sally became very upset and went back to the office. When the park manager saw Sally again, he asked her if there was something wrong. In this situation, what would Sally most likely say to him?

Sally: _____

[21 ~ 22] 대화를 듣고, 21번과 22번의 두 물음에 답하시오.

W: Hey, what are you looking at?

M: I'm looking at photos of cliff dwellers. They're really interesting.

W: You mean the people who lived under rock shelters?

M: Yes. They were mainly in Southwest America.

W: I can't imagine how they could live under a rock cliff.

M: It doesn't seem so bad. The morning sun would heat their caves if they faced south or east.

W: How did they get water living there?

M: Their caves were near streams or rivers.

W: I see. But I think living in a cave would be awful.

M: You may think so, but some cliff dwellers made whole cities inside canyons.

W: Wow, a city inside a canyon? It would be extremely safe.

M: Sure. If someone came to attack them, they just took down their ladders and no one could come in.

W: That's brilliant. They could easily defend their homes.

M: Yeah. The cliff dwellers were really smart.
